Weather Probabilities.

For this section unsettled weather, with showers this afternoon and tonight; cooler tonight, Friday cloudy and cooler, brisk northwesterly winds.

BAZAR A SUCCESS.

The committee who had charge of the bazar recently held under the auspices of Oriental Lodge No. 6, Knights of Pythias, at Odd Fellows Hall, made their final report to Oriental Lodge Tuesday night. The bazar was a great success in every particular, and netted the lodge a handsome sum. The prizes voted for on the black board were awarded as follows: Lady's ring, Miss Sadie Bastin; mirror, Mrs. Thos. Dawson; I. O. R. M. ring, Mrs. Bynum; man's ring, Mr. J. H. Haley; I. O. O. F. pin, Mr. Geo. Bontz, jr. At the close of the lodge meeting the drawing for the Knights of Pythias ring, for which voices were sold to the lodges in the state and Washington, D. C., was held.

Ticket number 822 held by Hermione Lodge of Washington, D. C., won the ring. Past Chancellor, M. R. Norris, the only charter member in the lodge at the present time, was selected to draw. State Lecturer Ernest R. Boyer gave an interesting account of his recent visit to the lodges in the Ninth district. Mr. Boyer reports a most delightful trip and visit, more particularly at Round Hill and Lovettsville, where meetings were held in the town halls. Elaborate banquets were served at both of the above places.

CHILDREN'S HOME.

To the housekeepers, who during this season are cleaning and renovating the lady board of managers of the Children's Home would suggest that if there are any articles of clothing, furniture, etc. to be discarded by them that the board would be glad to be notified as it could utilize these articles for the home.

ECLIPSE OF MOON.

On the night of Wednesday, November 14th, there will be an eclipse of the moon, visible here and in all parts of the United States. The moon will enter eclipse about 6:30 or 7 o'clock and will be in total eclipse about 7:30 o'clock.

RIVER NOTES.

The tugboat Eugenia, belonging to W. A. Smoot & Co., which sank at her dock Saturday night, has been raised. The schooner Five Sisters, from the lower river with lumber to W. A. Smoot & Co., has arrived.

ENTERTAINMENT AND EUCHE.

The Court of Isabella, No. 54, will give another of their very enjoyable entertainments and euche, tonight, in St. Mary's Hall. Those who have attended these euche's in the past will know that a pleasant evening is in store for them. There will be many handsome prizes.

MUSIC, SONG, ORATORY AND DRAMA.

Gilbert Warden will give one of his famous performances of music, song oratory and drama at the Young People's Building on Tuesday next at 8 p. m. He will be assisted by the Hawkins Brothers, who won the gold medal at the St. Louis Exposition for the best banjo and guitar playing.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

The evangelistic services now being conducted in the First Baptist Church are still attended by large congregations. The services are held at 8:30 and 7:45 p. m. There have been seventeen converts so far.

TO LOCATE IN ALEXANDRIA COUNTY.

Mr. David N. Rust, jr., has sold to the Separate Recovery Company of America a large tract of land at Arlington station. The company is now erecting a large plant on the property which will cost $50,000.

FINED TEN DOLLARS.

D. J. Barr was arrested this morning for disorderly conduct in an eating house. He was later brought before the Police Court and fined $10. This was the only case on the docket.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY.

Friendship Council, D. of L., will hold its regular session tomorrow night at Pythian Hall. A special programme has been arranged for the good of the order.

NEGRO WOMEN FIGHT.

Jennie Payne and Nellie Brooks, both colored, engaged in a fight in the vicinity of the old local depot about noon today, and during the fight passed eastward over several squares. The herculean form of Chief Goods finally loomed up and he brought the fight to a close by arresting the combatants. They will be arraigned before the Police Court tomorrow morning to answer the charge of creating a disturbance in the street.

DEATH OF EDWARD CRANE.

Mr. Edward Crane, an old and well-known resident of Del Ray, died last night. The deceased was an octogenarian. He leaves a widow and two daughters. Mr. Crane was a native of England.

A BIT OF NONSENSE.

The Opera House's capacity will be tested tonight and the remaining two nights of the week when it is known that Sanford & Darlington will be here to a character singing and talking act, entitled "A Little Bit of Nonsense." Also the fact that Slicker, the famous trapeze man, will be here, and last, but not least, will be Sam Welsh, the Hebrew comedian. Be on hand early and secure a good seat, for this is the show of shows.

John Gray, of Del Ray, reports that a colored girl named Alice Howard stole $10 from him yesterday.

WEDDINGS.

Miss Courtney Towne Greenough, daughter of Mrs. John Hammond Griffith, and Mr. Wilmer Joyce Waller, were married in St. Paul's Church, of this city at 8 o'clock last night, in the presence of a large assemblage. The bride was accompanied to the altar by her uncle, Mr. Courtney Acton, and was given in marriage by the Rev. Mr. J. H. Griffith. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. Phillips, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. John Hammond Griffith, of Kingston, N. C. As the bride party approached the chancel the wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Mr. Sherman B. Fowler. The procession to the altar was preceded by the bride's sister, little Miss Eugene Griffith. The bride was gown in white satin crepe meter over white satin, trimmed with barrette rose point lace and pearls and chiffon, and wore a white tulle veil, caught with a cluster of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were Misses George McAdams, of this city, and Misses Comas French and the best man was Comas French, brother of the bridegroom. The maid of honor was Miss Margaret Waller, sister of the bridegroom, and had pink roses in her hair and carried pink roses. Miss Eugene Griffith, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in white lingerie over pink silk, and carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were Misses Jean Lloyd Brent, Mary W. Snowden, Marie Lunstall, of Washington; and Katherine Waller, sister of the groom. The brides were pink messaline silk and pink chiffon, and silver trimmings and pink ribbons in their hair. Their flowers were pink chrysanthemums. The ushers were Messrs. Edward S. Fawcett, Conrad Johnson, Wallace Lindsey, John T. Ashton, Daingerfield Addison, of Fairfax; L. Benjamin Goodrich, of Washington. Following the wedding, the bride party was tendered a reception at the residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Richard C. Acton. Afterward Mr. and Mrs. Waller left for a northern bridal trip. On their return they will reside in this city.

Yesterday afternoon at half past three o'clock in Christ Church Miss Katie Nagel Smith became the bride of Mr. William F. Smith, a popular young business man of this city, formerly of Baltimore. Rev. W. J. Morton officiating. The bride, who was unattended, wore white, and carried white chrysanthemums. Only the relatives of the bride were present. Later Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a short northern trip.

Mrs. Maryus Jones, of Newport News, is the guest of her nephew, Mr. Charles P. C. Waller, having come to attend the wedding of her grand nephew, Mr. Wilmer J. Waller, and Miss Courtney Greenough. Mrs. Besie Mercer, of Washington, was also a guest at the wedding.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

In the Corporation Court today R. H. Cox, sergeant, was appointed administrator of the estate of the late George Washington.

The alarm of fire about ten o'clock this morning was caused by a burning chimney on the east side of Fairfax street, between Gibson and Franklin streets. The fire was extinguished by the fire department, and the cause of the fire is being investigated.

The lunch given this evening at the Elks' Hall by the Anti-tuberculosis Society was a beautiful affair and was largely attended. James, the little son of Conductor J. W. Cruckett, was struck and knocked down by a wagon near the intersection of Prince and Royal streets yesterday afternoon. He fortunately escaped serious injury.

The Arcade polo team, of Washington, will play the Alexandria polo team a game Friday night at Ansony Hall for a large purse. Both teams will make a hard fight for the prize. We don't care "risky" think "what you think of us that makes us sit up and take notice. Whenever you are hungry and somewhere in the innermost recesses of your mind, there is an empty aching void, just think of those irresistibly delicious Anti-tuberculosis and Puddings at Elks' Hall. Look up our slogan: "They will change your look of hunger to an irresistible smile." Look up our slogan on this page and note our quotations on Hams and Shoulders.

VOTE CANVASED.

The Commissioners of Election met in the Clerk's office of the Corporation Court this morning and canvassed the vote in this city Tuesday. It was as follows: C. C. Carlin for congress 749; for extending sessions of the legislature 46, against 601; for simplifying the legislative proceedings 86, against 632; in reference to election of treasurers and commissioners of revenue in counties for 647, against 77; in cities for 656, against 82.
